

Assignment: Computer Basics

1. What is Computer?

A computer is a programmable device that stores, retrieves, and processes data.

2. What is RAM?

RAM means Random access memory, it acts as an internal memory of the CPU. It allows CPU store data, program, and program results when you switch on the computer.

3. Where is data stored in computer?

Computers use two types of memory: primary and secondary. The main storage is the primary memory, and data and programs are stored in secondary memory. For example CD, Pendrive, Hard Disks are used as a removable type storage devices (Secondary Memory)

4. What is that input device that is used to type text and numbers on the document in the computer system?

Keyboard

5. What are the output devices?

Monitor, Printer, Plotter, Projector

6. Which is the input device that allows a user to move the cursor or pointer on the screen?

Mouse

7. Which language is directly understood by computer without a translation program?

Machine Language

8. What are input devices?

In computing, an input device allows information to be entered into the computer system, either from the user or another computer. For example, a keyboard, mouse, or microphone.